

The City of Kennesaw was recently recognized for their outstanding efforts in making a difference among their employees, their employees' families and the community they serve. CHP was especially pleased to see Mayor Mark Matthews recognized for his leadership by example, which is critical for wellness to be successful.

Click here to view the video.